30TH ANNUAL PARADE OF TABLES

The Parade of Tables fundraiser, held annually, is a signature event with the goal of raising funds for schools and clubs in our community. Since its inception, the event has grown into a highly anticipated celebration that not only highlights the artistic talents of local neighbors, but also strengthens the community's commitment to charitable giving.

Over the years, Parade of Tables has evolved into much more than a fundraiser. It's a chance for individuals, families, and businesses to come together, showcasing their creativity and passion for giving. Each year, talented individuals craft themed table settings that range from elegant and classic to whimsical and avant-garde.

Each table is sponsored by a community member or organization, with meticulous attention to detail in each table setting. The tables are a testament to the hard work of the participants, who spend weeks planning, sourcing materials, and perfecting their designs.

To add to the magic there is a "Shark Tank" portion of the program which gives young voices a chance to "pitch" their fundraiser, whether it is to fund new school equipment or to fund spirit programs.

MONTHLY HOROSCOPE FOR ALL ZODIAC SIGNS

The new year is always everyone's favorite for resolutions. However, this year begins with Mars retrograde, which prefers a slow start.

The planet Mars may be the planet of action, but retrograde means it's best to think before acting. It's better to put fresh starts off until next month when the Red Planet stations are direct.

Venus sails into Pisces on the 2nd, elevating compassion, kindness, and unconditional love. This transit can bring out the best in humankind because Venus is exalted in Pisces, which means it operates well in this sign. It's a wonderful period for romance, creativity, and marriage. Venus remains here until February 4th.

Mars steps back into Cancer on the 6th. Get on top of your winter home renovation. If you have unfinished projects, this is an excellent time to tackle them once and for all. Also, take down the tree, put away the holiday decor, and throw away gift boxes if you haven't done so already. Emotions can be strong during this transit, which lingers until April. While there is nothing wrong with listening to your feelings, it's wise to refrain from making emotionally charged decisions without proper research.

The Full Moon in Cancer on the 13th is a lovely lunation for small gatherings with family. A quiet meal followed by a game board night is a wonderful way to enjoy this sentimental vibe. It's also the perfect day to continue tidying up your home. Even if you've put off taking down the holiday decor, this day is the nudge to get it out of your hair.
